Article VII. Assembly: Section I. The officers of LAUC shall serve as officers of the Assembly. The officers of LAUC shall not be members of the Assembly, except that the presiding officer may vote to break a tie vote.

Section 2. Membership: The Chair of each Division, or his/her alternate, as elected by the Division, is automatically a member of the Assembly. Additional members (i.e., Divisional representatives) shall be elected by each Division from its roster of voting members. The number of representatives for each Division is calculated based on each Division's LAUC membership on 1 September.

Representatives from each Division shall be the Chair, or his/her alternate, plus the following:

- One delegate for each Division having up to and including 35 members of LAUC.
- Two delegates for each Division having 36 to 85 members of LAUC.
- Three delegates for each Division having 86 to 160 members of LAUC.
- Four delegates for each Division having 161 or more members of LAUC.
