Ideas on how to enliven LAUC-SD, 1981

SAN DIEGO: THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY
LA JOLLA, CALIFORNIA

November 11, 1981

GARRETT BOWLES, LAUC-SD President

The Ad Hoc, Temporary charge to bring suggested goals to the November 12 meeting. As we read the subtext of the charge, we were being asked not only for substantive "projects," but also ideas on how to enliven LAUC-SD. We bring you the following, some of which we pass along from other LAUC members; others are the product of a brainstorm session in Soete's office assisted by a tiny celebratory libation en passant:

1. We should continue amplifying this:
 - a. a mentor system (department) process.
 - b. meeting among staff to discuss.
2. LAUC-SD should produce an organization chart for UCSD Libraries which gives full names, ranks, functional responsibilities for librarians. This would be very useful for newcomers--and maybe for veterans, too?
3. We should work on how to motivate, keep alive and lively, senior librarians on the staff.
3. We should work on how to motivate, keep alive and lively, senior librarians on the staff.
4. We should have some luncheon meetings featuring decent food (off-campus).
5. Use LAUC meetings to stimulate rather than merely inform. Depend on minutes of meetings rather than oral reports of task groups, etc. Spell out all acronyms: especially important for newcomers.
6. We should focus on automation. How can we stimulate faculty and other user interest; how can we better serve their information-related needs?
7. More Irish coffee!

Systematic approach to APM might be more effective than the various ad hoc approaches to issues that LAUC seems to take.

9. A retreat!
10. Program featuring faculty discussing their use- or non-use of the library.

We'd like to spend some time on November 12 soliciting further ideas, and some time discussing these.

Con brio--
