

SLASIAC Report, 2018-2019

Prepared by Jennifer Chan, LAUC Representative to SLASIAC, 2017-2020

The Systemwide Library & Scholarly Information Advisory Committee (SLASIAC) meetings were held in Oakland and via conference calls in AY 2018-2019 on: November 6th, 2018, February 12th, 2019. Please note that SLASIAC also met on May 30, 2018, which served as the final meeting of the previous academic year. Available meeting documents are uploaded periodically to <https://libraries.universityofcalifornia.edu/slasiac/meetings>.

Scott Waugh, Executive Vice-Chancellor and Provost, UCLA, continues as Chair of SLASIAC. The full roster of the Committee is available here: <https://libraries.universityofcalifornia.edu/slasiac/roster>.

SLASIAC reports to the Vice-Provost for Academic Personnel and Programs (APP) at the Office of the President. Reporting structure: http://www.cdlib.org/groups/docs/UCL_Conult_Structure.pdf.

As the LAUC representative to SLASIAC, periodic reports have been provided to the LAUC Executive Board throughout the current term. These comments have been captured in previous meeting minutes.

During the current period, SLASIAC has also issued multiple documents:

June 2018: Negotiating Journal Agreements at UC: A Call to Action

December 18, 2018: SLASIAC to Provost and Executive Vice President Michael Brown: "Letter of Support re Elsevier Negotiations"

February 4, 2019: SLASIAC to Council of University Librarians: "Managing library spaces, collections, and services to meet the evolving needs of..."

These documents may be accessed via <https://libraries.universityofcalifornia.edu/slasiac/documents>. A copy of the February letter to CoUL was provided to LAUC Executive Board.

The next meeting scheduled for SLASIAC is May 21st, 2019.
